

Seasons

Seasons are mentioned many times in the Bible. Christmas is one of my favorites. I like the decorations and festivities and family gatherings. It's also a time for giving and receiving gifts. Let me ask though, do you remember what you got last year or the last 5? I read a term for looking at things on your phone called dream scrolling and I'm sure we are all a little guilty of it but whatever you got last year, is it still as "dreamy"? God gave us the only lasting present that never fades in his son Jesus. He never fades, goes out of style, rusts, breaks, or shrinks. This Season let's give someone you know the ultimate gift of salvation. Neither of you will ever forget!
